Dear Siddharth Narayanan,

Congratulations on being admitted to the Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering at Texas A&M University! Admissions to our program is very competitive. We closely review each and every application. We admitted you because we believe you will make a great contribution to our program and the field at-large. The application you submitted was strong and demonstrated that you would be a good fit for our program.

To accept or decline your offer of admissions, please email mechanical\_gradprograms@tamu.edu with your NAME, UIN, and DECISION. We ask that you notify us by Sunday, May 31, 2020 so we can appropriately plan for your arrival. You do not need to contact the Office of Admissions to accept or decline your offer.

An offer of admission does not guarantee departmental funding for your studies. Research assistantships are available through individual mechanical engineering faculty. You are encouraged to correspond directly with faculty whose laboratories you may be interested in joining. Teaching assistantships are awarded by the department on a semester basis. Applications for teaching assistantships are closed for the Fall 2020 semester.

Master of Science students are responsible for independently identifying and securing a research advisor. This does not have to be done prior to the start of your graduate program; however, if you wish to contact faculty before your arrival, you are welcome to do so. We recommend reviewing the Research Clusters page to narrow down the faculty members whose research aligns with your interest.

Official copies of your final transcripts for all previously attended institutions will need to be submitted to the Office of Admissions to become eligible for registration. Specific instructions on how to submit transcripts are available under Required Documents and How to Submit Your Documents.

We understand that COVID-19 has impacted a large number of students in many ways, including delays in document processing for international and domestic students. Our top priority is the care and safety of our prospective students, and current faculty, students, and staff. We hope you and your family are well and safe!

Texas A&M is currently operating though most staff are working from home. The Graduate Advising Office in Mechanical Engineering is here to support you during these uncertain times and during your time in our program. You are welcome to reach out to us with concerns regarding COVID-19 or other questions regarding registration or program requirements.

Texas A&M is a wonderful campus with numerous resources including, but not limited to, Multicultural Services, International Student Services, Counseling and Psychological Services, the Women's Resource Center, and the Graduate and Professional Studies Government, and the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies.

Congratulations!

I am pleased to inform you that you have been offered provisional-admission to the M.S. programme in the Department of Electrical Engineering at IIT Madras under the Project-NHTRA category.

I thank you for participating in our online interview process. This year's applicant pool was exceptional, and our admission committee was impressed by your performance. You will join a community of innovative, smart, and enterprising students, faculty, and alumni who are making significant contributions to our society. Our department is home to a large research community with 70 faculty, 200 Ph.D. scholars, and 100 M.S. scholars. Their areas of research in EE can be found at <http://www.ee.iitm.ac.in/research/>.

Due to travel restrictions during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, you are currently granted provisional-admission status. An orientation session will be organized by our department in the second week of August. Online classes for research scholars are expected to start from 31st August 2020. You will be informed about the courses appropriate to your area of research, registration procedures, and the conduct of online classes during the orientation session. You are expected to register for two courses in the first semester.
