DVV Clarification	HEI Response
1. HEI is requested to kindly note that most of the programme provided in this metric seems to be a part of the regular university curriculum, which should not be considered in this metric. please relook and provide correct revised data. FOLLOWING should not be considered: Java, Python, Programming in C++, Robotics etc.,	As specified by the DVV Partner, HEI has removed four (4) courses including Java, Python, C, C++ for B.E. CSE students through IIT Bombay Spoken Tutorial Program. NPTEL courses in Java, Python, C, C++, Robotics are retained as the participating students are of different engineering disciplines other than computer science / IT domain and not a part of the regular University curriculum. Revised data is provided as supporting document (S. No. 2) for kind consideration.
2. Kindly note that Repetition of Add on/Certificate/Value added programs in every year during assessment period to be counted one only. Thus, DVV Suggested Input is 101. So please relook and provide correct revised data.	Repetition of Add on/Certificate/Value added programs in every year during assessment period are counted one and revised HEI input for unique number of courses is now changed from 103 to 97 after excluding the removed and repeating courses. Revised data is provided as supporting document (S. No. 2) for kind consideration.

HEI Input (Revised): 97
